Wi-SUN ALLIANCE ADOPTER MEMBER AGREEMENT

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Incorporation

The Alliance is organized as a not-for-profit Corporation registered under the General Corporation Law of Delaware. The Articles of Incorporation and initial form of Corporate Bylaws of the Alliance are set forth in Exhibit 1 ("Corporate Documents"). By executing this Adopter Member Agreement, Adopter Member consents to the form of the Corporate Documents. Adopter Member acknowledges that the Corporate Documents may be amended from time to time in conformance with appropriate law.

2. Purposes of Alliance

The Alliance is a mutual benefit corporation formed to promote the use of two-way wireless communications standards for Smart Grid Networks and Services. The Alliance may expand its activities into technologies and services that utilize two-way wireless communications for consumer electronics, home and building automation, industrial controls, PC peripherals, and other related applications. Each Promoter Member will have a representative on the Board of Directors of the Alliance, and the Board of Directors may modify the charter and scope of the Alliance in the future.

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to:

- a. Bring about the existence of a broad range of interoperable consumer and industrial devices by promoting open industry specifications for unlicensed and licensed, peripheral, control and monitoring devices.
- b. Provide a forum and environment whereby the Corporation's Members may meet to approve suggested revisions and enhancements that evolve the relevant specifications; make appropriate submissions to established agencies and bodies with the purpose of ratifying these specifications as an international standard; and provide a forum whereby users may meet with developers and providers of related products and services to identify requirements for interoperability and general usability.
- c. Educate the business and consumer communities as to the value, benefits and applications for wireless consumer products and services through public statements, publications, trade shows demonstrations, seminar sponsorships and other programs established by the Corporation.
- d. Protect the needs of consumers and increase competition among vendors by supporting the creation and implementation of uniform, industry-standard conformance test procedures and processes which assure the interoperability of wireless consumer products and services.
- e. Maintain relationships and liaison with educational institutions, government research institutes, other technology consortia, and other organizations that support and contribute to the development of the specifications and standards; and

- a) Foster competition in the development of new products and services based on specifications developed by the Corporation in conformance with all applicable anti-trust laws and regulations.

The Alliance and its Promoter Members, Contributor Members and Adopter Members shall individually and collectively be committed to open competition in the development of products, technology and services, and the Alliance shall not restrict Promoter Members, Contributor Members and Adopter Members from designing, developing, marketing and/or procuring hardware, software, systems, technology or services. Implementation or use of specific Adopted Specifications is voluntary. No Promoter Member and/or Contributor Member and/or Adopter Member shall be required or obliged to implement Adopted Specifications by virtue of being a Promoter Member and/or Contributor Member and/or Adopter Member, as applicable, of the Alliance.

3. Participation as an Adopter Member; Dues

Subject to the terms of Section 9, upon acceptance of this Adopter Member Agreement by the Alliance, and payment of the appropriate dues, the Adopter Member shall hold the status of an Adopter Member of the Alliance for a period of twelve (12) months commencing on the acceptance date. Subject to the terms of Section 9, the Adopter Member may renew its Adopter Member status for subsequent twelve (12) month periods by paying any then current annual dues established by the Board of Directors (The structure and formation of the Board of Directors is described in the Corporate Bylaws attached to this agreement as Exhibit 1). Failure to timely pay dues shall result in non-renewal and termination of Adopter Member's membership pursuant to Section 9(d). Membership dues are non-refundable, except in the case of a distribution upon the event of dissolution as set forth in the Corporate Bylaws. The Board of Directors may increase or decrease the annual dues required of Adopter Members in accordance with the Corporate Bylaws. All dues shall be used in furtherance of the purposes of the Alliance. Subject to the survival provisions of Section 9(e), upon expiration or termination of the Adopter Member's status as a Adopter Member of the Alliance, all rights and privileges provided and/or granted to the Adopter Member and/or any Affiliate of the Adopter Member pursuant to Section 4 of this Adopter Member Agreement will terminate.

4. Duties and Rights of Adopter Members

The duties, rights, privileges and obligations of Adopter Members are set forth in the Corporate Bylaws and as may otherwise be provided under Delaware Corporation Law, with additional rights as described below. The Board of Directors may modify such rights and privileges from time to time. Except as set forth below, nothing herein shall entitle the Adopter Member to any voting rights with respect to the business or proceedings of the Alliance.

Adopter Members are entitled to:

1. Receive access to final, approved Wi-SUN profile specifications and associated test specifications.

2. Attend certain Wi-SUN Alliance interoperability events, specific to the Adopter Member's selected profile;
3. Attend Alliance workshops and developers' conferences;
4. Use Wi-SUN Alliance logo (within usage guidelines);

Except as otherwise identified by the Adopter Member, any information the Adopter Member submits or discloses to the Alliance, including its committees and/or working groups thereof, shall be treated as non-confidential and shall be available to all Promoter Members, Contributor Members and Adopter Members of the Alliance without restriction. Any information pertaining to the business of the Alliance which is produced during Alliance activities including, but not limited to, Committee and Working Group meetings, email reflectors, document submissions, or which the Adopter Member submits or discloses to the Alliance, including any committee or working group thereof, and which is: (a) marked by the Alliance or Adopter Member as "Confidential" information; or (b) if orally disclosed, identified as Confidential prior to disclosure and reduced to writing and marked as Confidential within three (3) business days from the date of disclosure, shall be treated as Confidential information with respect to third parties, except for any portion thereof that constitutes information: (c) rightfully in the public domain other than by a breach of a duty to the disclosing party; (d) rightfully received from a third party without any obligation of confidentiality; (e) rightfully known to the receiving party without any limitation on use or disclosure prior to its receipt from the disclosing party; (f) independently developed by employees of the receiving party; or (g) generally made available to third parties by the disclosing party without restriction or disclosure. Such Adopter Member Confidential information shall be maintained by each Promoter Member, Contributor Member and Adopter Member of the Alliance in confidence with at least the same degree of care that it uses to protect its own proprietary information and in no event with less than reasonable care, and each Promoter Member, Contributor Member and Adopter Member of the Alliance that receives such Adopter Member Confidential information shall only use such Adopter Member Confidential information for the Alliance purpose for which it was submitted. In the event a Promoter Member and/or Contributor Member and/or Adopter Member of the Alliance breaches the obligation of confidentiality with respect to the Confidential information of Adopter Member, the Adopter Member may seek legal recourse against the breaching Promoter Member and/or Contributor Member and/or Adopter Member of the Alliance, or against any other appropriate entity, except that the Alliance shall have no liability with respect to such breach. Third parties seeking access to Adopter Member Confidential information that has been provided to the Alliance must reach an agreement with the concerned Adopter Member as condition for being provided the Adopter Member's Confidential information, unless the Alliance is required to divulge the Adopter Member's Confidential information by a governmental body or by a judicial decree. Adopter Member Confidential information will not be included in Alliance Adopted Specifications unless the Adopter Member waives its confidentiality. The rights and obligations set forth in this Section 6 shall expire three (3) years after the date the Adopter Member discloses or submits the Adopter Member Confidential information to the Alliance, or to any other Promoter Member or Contributor Member or Adopter Member of the Alliance in the course of the Adopter Member's Alliance-related activities.
