1. Incorporation

The Alliance is organized as a not-for-profit Corporation registered under the General Corporation Law of Delaware. The Articles of Incorporation and initial form of Corporate Bylaws of the Alliance are set forth in Exhibit 1 ("Corporate Documents"). By executing this Promoter Member Agreement, Promoter Member consents to the form of the Corporate Documents. Promoter Member acknowledges that the Corporate Documents may be amended from time to time in conformance with appropriate law.

2. Purposes of Alliance

The Alliance is a mutual benefit corporation formed to promote the use of two-way wireless communications standards for Smart Grid Networks and Services. The Alliance may expand its activities into technologies and services that utilize two-way wireless communications for consumer electronics, home and building automation, industrial controls, PC peripherals, and other related applications. Each Promoter Member will have a representative on the Board of Directors of the Alliance, and the Board of Directors may modify the charter and scope of the Alliance in the future.

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to:

a. Bring about the existence of a broad range of interoperable consumer and industrial devices by promoting open industry specifications for unlicensed and licensed, peripheral, control and monitoring devices.

b. Provide a forum and environment whereby the Corporation’s Members may meet to approve suggested revisions and enhancements that evolve the relevant specifications; make appropriate submissions to established agencies and bodies with the purpose of ratifying these specifications as an international standard; and provide a forum whereby users may meet with developers and providers of related products and services to identify requirements for interoperability and general usability.

c. Educate the business and consumer communities as to the value, benefits and applications for wireless consumer products and services through public statements, publications, trade shows demonstrations, seminar sponsorships and other programs established by the Corporation.

d. Protect the needs of consumers and increase competition among vendors by supporting the creation and implementation of uniform, industry-standard conformance test procedures and processes which assure the interoperability of wireless consumer products and services.

e. Maintain relationships and liaison with educational institutions, government research institutes, other technology consortia, and other organizations that support and contribute to the development of the specifications and standards; and

a) Foster competition in the development of new products and services based on specifications developed by the Corporation in conformance with all applicable anti-trust laws and regulations.

The Alliance and its Promoter Members and Contributor Members shall individually and collectively be committed to open competition in the development of products, technology and services, and the Alliance shall not restrict Promoter Members and Contributor Members from designing, developing, marketing and/or procuring hardware, software, systems, technology or services. Implementation or use of specific Adopted Specifications is voluntary. No Promoter Member and/or Contributor Member shall be required or obliged to implement Adopted Specifications by virtue of being a Promoter Member and/or Contributor Member, as applicable, of the Alliance.

3. Participation as a Promoter Member; Dues

Subject to the terms of Section 9, upon acceptance of this Promoter Member Agreement by the Alliance, and payment of the appropriate dues, the Promoter Member shall hold the status of a Promoter Member of the Alliance for a period of twelve (12) months commencing on the acceptance date. Subject to the terms of Section 9, the Promoter Member may renew its Promoter Member status for subsequent twelve (12) month periods by paying any then current annual dues established by the Board of Directors (The structure and formation of the Board of Directors is described in the Corporate Bylaws attached to this agreement as Exhibit 1). Failure to timely pay dues shall result in non-renewal and termination of Promoter Member's membership pursuant to Section 9(d). Membership dues are non-refundable, except in the case of a distribution upon the event of dissolution as set forth in the Corporate Bylaws. The Board of Directors may increase or decrease the annual dues required of Promoter Members in accordance with the Corporate Bylaws. All dues shall be used in furtherance of the purposes of the Alliance. Subject to the survival provisions of Section 9(e), upon expiration or termination of the Promoter Member's status as a Promoter Member of the Alliance, all rights and privileges provided and/or granted to the Promoter Member and/or any Affiliate of the Promoter Member pursuant to Section 4 of this Promoter Member Agreement will terminate.

4. Duties and Rights of Promoter Members

The duties, rights, privileges and obligations of Promoter Members are set forth in the Corporate Bylaws and as may otherwise be provided under Delaware Corporation Law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Corporate Bylaws, each Promoter Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote in the following:

a) All matters presented before the Board of Directors for vote;

b) All matters presented before the Promoter Members of the Alliance for vote; and

c) Approval of Proposed Specifications to become Adopted Specifications.

The designated representative of the Promoter Member on the Board of Directors shall be identified by the Promoter Member on the first page of this Promoter Member Agreement.
The designated representative of Promoter Member on the Board of Directors may be changed by the Promoter Member at any time during its membership, in accordance with the Corporate Bylaws.

If Promoter Member is a consortium, association or other similar organization or otherwise has members or sponsors, the rights and privileges granted to the Promoter Member shall extend only to the Promoter Member, as an entity, and further shall not extend to the Promoter Member's affiliates and subsidiaries.

5. Intellectual Property Rights

The Promoter Member agrees to the terms and conditions of the Intellectual Property Rights ("IPR") Policy attached hereto as Exhibit 2. The Promoter Member acknowledges and understands that the IPR Policy may be revised from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Corporate Bylaws.

6. Confidential Information

Except as otherwise identified by the Promoter Member, any information the Promoter Member submits or discloses to the Alliance, including its committees and/or working groups thereof, shall be treated as non-confidential and shall be available to all Promoter Members and Contributor Members of the Alliance without restriction. Any information pertaining to the business of the Alliance which is produced during Alliance activities including, but not limited to, Committee and Working Group meetings, email reflectors, document submissions, or which the Promoter Member submits or discloses to the Alliance, including any committee or working group thereof, and which is: (a) marked by the Alliance or Promoter Member as "Confidential" information; or (b) if orally disclosed, identified as Confidential prior to disclosure and reduced to writing and marked as Confidential within three (3) business days from the date of disclosure, shall be treated as Confidential information with respect to third parties, except for any portion thereof that constitutes information: (c) rightfully in the public domain, other than by a breach of a duty to the disclosing party; (d) rightfully received from a third party without any obligation of confidentiality; (e) rightfully known to the receiving party without any limitation on use or disclosure prior to its receipt from the disclosing party; (f) independently developed by employees of the receiving party; or (g) generally made available to third parties by the disclosing party without restriction or disclosure. Such Promoter Member Confidential information shall be maintained by each Promoter Member and Contributor Member of the Alliance in confidence with at least the same degree of care that it uses to protect its own proprietary information and in no event with less than reasonable care, and each Promoter Member and Contributor Member of the Alliance that receives such Promoter Member Confidential information shall only use such Promoter Member Confidential information for the Alliance purpose for which it was submitted. In the event a Promoter Member and/or Contributor Member of the Alliance breaches the obligation of confidentiality with respect to the Confidential information of Promoter Member, the Promoter Member may seek legal recourse against the breaching Promoter Member and/or Contributor Member of the Alliance, or against any other appropriate entity, except that the Alliance shall have no liability with respect to such breach. Third parties seeking access to Promoter Member Confidential information that has been provided to the Alliance must reach an agreement with the concerned Promoter Member as condition for being provided the Promoter Member's Confidential information, unless the Alliance is required to divulge the Promoter Member’s Confidential information by a governmental body or by a judicial decree. Promoter Member Confidential information will not be included in Alliance Adopted Specifications unless the Promoter Member waives its confidentiality. The rights and obligations set forth in this Section 6 shall expire three (3) years after the date the Promoter Member discloses or submits the Promoter Member Confidential information to the Alliance, or to any other Promoter Member or Contributor Member of the Alliance in the course of the Promoter Member’s Alliance-related activities.

Promoter Member agrees to the terms and conditions of the Antitrust Guidelines attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

8. Application to Affiliates

a) Definition

"Affiliate" shall mean, with respect to Promoter Member, any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with Promoter Member, where "control" means direct or indirect ownership of or the right to exercise: (i) greater than fifty percent (50%) of the outstanding shares or securities entitled to vote for the election of directors or similar managing authority of the subject entity; or (ii) greater than fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interest representing the right to make decisions for the subject entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, Affiliates of Promoter Member will not have any right to vote in any matters presented for vote before the Board of Directors and/or the Promoter Members of the Alliance. The rights granted under this Section 8 shall terminate immediately upon: (iii) the Affiliate's material breach of any of its obligations under this Section 8; or (iv) termination or expiration of this Promoter Member Agreement pursuant to Section 9.

c) Right to Bind
An Affiliate of a Promoter Member shall not have the right to exercise the rights granted to the Promoter Member hereunder until the Board of Directors, or an officer of the Alliance at the direction of the Board of Directors, reviews and approves of such Affiliate’s participation in the Alliance through this Promoter Member Agreement. As a condition of such approval, the Board of Directors or, at the direction of the Board of Directors, an officer of the Alliance may require written documentation that such Affiliate has duly authorized the Promoter Member and/or Promoter Member has the corporate authority to bind such Affiliate. The Board of Directors or, at the direction of the Board of Directors, an officer of the Alliance, may require additional proof of the relationship between the Promoter Member and such Affiliate and/or may impose additional conditions or terms governing such Affiliate's participation in the Alliance through this Promoter Member Agreement at any time, including, without limitation, prior to any access and/or use of any intellectual property or Confidential information by the Promoter Member and/or any Affiliate under the terms of this Promoter Member Agreement.

Upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Board of Directors, the Alliance shall have the right to terminate Promoter Member's status as a Promoter Member of the Alliance for cause. d) Failure to Pay Annual or Specially Assessed Dues Promoter Member acknowledges that Promoter Member status is conferred on an annual basis and that any renewal of membership, or in the case of a special assessment, continuation of membership, is contingent upon payment of the applicable dues. If the Promoter Member fails to pay the applicable annual or special assessment dues when required: (i) Promoter Member's status in the Alliance will not be renewed in the case of failure to pay the annual dues or will be terminated in the case of failure to pay the specially assessed dues; (ii) the Promoter Member shall be entitled to continue participation only upon re-application of membership to the Alliance; (iii) Promoter Member waives any notice or process requirements in connection with such non-renewal and/or termination of membership status; and (iv) the terms of Section 9(e) shall apply.

e) Survival

Upon expiration or termination of a Promoter Member’s status as a Promoter Member of the Alliance: (i) the following terms shall survive: (A) this Section 9(e) and Sections 6, 11 and 12 of this Promoter Member Agreement; and (B) Sections 2 and 3 the IPR Policy with respect to Necessary Claims of the Promoter Member and of other Promoter Members and/or Contributor Members incorporated into or a part of any adopted specifications existing prior to the effective date of expiration or termination of such Promoter Member’s status as a Promoter Member; and (ii) the terms Sections 2 and 3 of the IPR Policy shall not apply to any portions of Proposed Specifications which have been expressly identified and affirmatively withdrawn from the Proposed Specifications by such Promoter Member prior to the effective date of expiration or termination of such Promoter Member’s status as a Promoter Member.
